Did You Know?

For the past 32 years, Rotary International has entered a float in the Rose Parade thanks to the generosity of Rotarians, Clubs and Districts in the United States and Canada, who donate all of the money to pay for the float.

This year's float was entitled "Inching Towards The End of Polio" Visit rotaryfloat.org to learn more!

Happy New Year 2012!

It may have been December 29, but it sure felt like New Year's Eve, as Anaheim Hills Rotary Club welcomed in 2012 during an evening filled with fellowship and fun. It was a packed house with AHRC members, visiting Rotarians, and other guests enjoying the wonderful celebration planned by President Sharon Boyd and Club Service Director Debra Patriquin.

Also joining us was our newest "almost official" member, Lourdes Alo (we know her as Lulu)!

Visiting Rotarians invited AHRC members to learn more about Shen Yun Performing Arts, which will perform at the Segerstrom Center in mid-January. For those members interested in attending a performance, please note that a small portion of the ticket price will benefit Rotary.

In a last-minute scramble, a Substitute Fine Master was drafted to provide the final 2011 boost to the treasury. While she did her best (really...that was her best),

The "newbies" took home the coveted top prizes (i.e., wine) during the highly competitive Wordsmith and New Year's Jumble games which managed to

In an interesting turn of events, we learned that our member roster had grown by one, although no one could recall the induction ceremony which took place for "Aqua Velva". ☺

AHRC news captures the normally serious AHRC members in a moment of hilarity...perhaps the reflection from the Rotary Wheel causes this odd behavior? No one knows for sure.

AHRC members Tracey Clark, Orin Abrams, Doug Duncan, and Darren Chu were on hand to support Interact members as they hosted a New Year's Eve Dessert Celebration at Nohl Ranch Inn on December 31. Approximately 40 seniors were in attendance to enjoy cookies, cheesecake, muffins, and other treats presented by the Interact Club. Party hats and themed décor helped make the event picture perfect!
